Several trainers were revealed to be using live bait when training the greyhounds, using animals including possums and rabbits. The dogs themselves were also often kept in cramped and unhealthy conditions and were often treated cruelly. To make matters worse, roughly 180 greyhounds every year would suffer a catastrophic injury during a race. Greyhounds can often live to be 12-15 years old, but the animals used for racing would often never see their fifth birthday, as they'd be put down before then for a number of reasons.
