So, if the Panthers win by more than 6.5 points, then bets placed on them at $1.92 will pay dividends. However, if the Eels manage to get within 6.5 points (and this includes winning the match), then wagers placed on them at $1.92 will be successful. Consider the following full time score-line: Panthers 18 defeated the Eels 16. Add on the Eels handicap of 6.5 to their total score, and it becomes greater than that of the Panthers. Conversely, if you subtract 6.5 from the Panther's score, they would have a lesser total than the Eels. You only need to do one or the other, not both. So according to the line market, it is the Eels who have won. Free pokies downloads games
